

A True Winner

LF LOGISTICS Thailand's 2012 Half-Year Success Story

The first 6 months of 2012 have brought a lot of success to LF Logistics Thailand including awards, new and renewed contracts and engagement initiatives – all happening alongside their remarkable recovery from the floods that hit the country last year.

Here are the highlights.

OUTSTANDING ACHIEVEMENTS

On January 13th the LF Logistics team in Bangpa-in received an award from the Ministry of Labour in recognition for its best practice in labour relations management towards its employees and social responsibility during the 2011 flood crisis in Thailand. LF Logistic's distribution center in Saraburi also received the same award on March 16th!

ENGAGING OCCASIONS

Over 50 colleagues attended the first ever LF Logistics Thailand town hall meeting on May 4th. Led by Executive Vice President of LF Logistics Thailand, Janya Thana-Athiporn, the meeting was part of LF Thailand's engagement initiative to improve communication amongst colleagues.

On the same day, LF Logistics Thailand also held the long service awards presentation ceremony for over 80 colleagues who have been with our company for 5, 10, 15 and 20 years.

NEW CRIB

Mead Johnson, the world's leading nutrition company for babies and toddlers has signed a 3-year service contract with LF Logistics Thailand.

To support the business, LF Logistics Thailand is building a new 14,000sqm distribution center in Chonburi province, 57km east of Bangkok, that will come online in June 2013.

The new facility will handle storing raw materials, packing materials and finish goods for export.

NIKE: LF LOGISTICS THAILAND DID IT!

On June 8th, LF Logistics Thailand announced a 3-year renewal with Nike (Thailand). The deal covers warehouse operations, transportation and customs clearance services.

Currently, Nike products are stored in Bangpa-in's 2,806sqm distribution center. LF Logistics plans to install a conveyor and implement radio data terminals to improve operation productivity and efficiency.

"Nike is satisfied with our operation initiatives to support their growth."

STARTING FRESH

LF Logistics Thailand hosted a welcome back home celebration in Bangpa-in on May 29th for our colleagues who moved to temporary warehouses in dispersed locations for 7 months due to the 2011 floods. The office has been renovated and is fully up and running. The opening included Buddhist rituals traditionally used to bring prosperity and a lavish spread of food and drinks.

"Everyone was happy to be back home and thankful to the company for taking care of them during tough times."
