LF Logistics Philippines
Hosts 8th Annual Environmental Health & Safety Week

During the second week of June, our colleagues from LF Logistics Philippines held their 8th annual Environmental Health & Safety (EHS) week. The 5-day event featured a series of activities in several of our distribution centers (DCs) to promote safety and wellness in the workplace. “The theme for this year’s EHS week is ‘Working Together to Reduce EHS Risks’,” said LF Logistics General Manager – Operations, Carlo Magno. “Our operational efficiency will improve the more we address challenges as a team.” Here’s a rundown of what our colleagues did that week...

Safety Challenges and Competitions

The Forklift Safety Challenge.

Our colleagues in different DCs took on this challenge to demonstrate their skills behind the wheel of a forklift. Judges rated their performance based on how safely they operated the vehicle, skills and accuracy.

The First Aid Challenge.

Our colleagues had to work together to assess and attend to different first aid scenarios.

The Fire Hose Challenge.

Our colleagues showed judges their ability to handle a fire hose – thankfully, there weren’t any actual fires to put out!

Spot the Hazard.

Our colleagues had to observe and analyze different DC setups and scenarios, and then were tasked to intervene and organize the items or equipment according to proper safety standards.

Health and Safety Lectures

Our colleagues attended lectures on fire and earthquake awareness, proper eye care, ISO 14001 criteria for environmental management systems and carbon footprint, and motorbike safety

Wellness Booths

EHS organizers this year also set up wellness booths to promote a healthy lifestyle and help colleagues at our different DCs relieve some stress. These booths included a free eye check up, free medicine samples, reflexology, skincare and makeup tutorials, and detoxification.

It seems that EHS week gets better and better each year for our colleagues at LF Logistics Philippines. Well done! 🇵🇭
